

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!

The Busiest Desk at MOBO

From August until the end of December, it seems like we are running at the same speed as Santa's workshop at the North Pole. Bob does somewhat resemble the Good 'Ol Saint Nick, doesn't he?

As we help you find the perfect items to thank and recognize your staff and customers for their service and patronage, we stretch and test our capacity to ensure all is delivered on time. We even wrap items so that you don't have to. So yes, some days it does feel like we walk in to Christmas central! It is an exciting time of year for us but we do need to pause and reflect while we have this opportunity to do so with the December newsletter.

Where did 2019 go? It seems like we were just sharing our news about the launch of our new MOBO Digital Print Studio at this time last year. Now, we are well under way with that division and are now just finalizing the launch of MOBO Sports. We will assist teams in finding uniquely designed items to help build support, team spirit and pride. All in all, it was a busy, fruitful and exciting year for us and we look forward to introducing more innovative solutions in 2020.

None of the success we enjoy would be possible without some very special Elves here at the MOBO workshop though, and that is our Shipping & Receiving team.

We thought it might be fun to share some stats with you on their YTD performance. The first of which is that they managed to receive and deliver over 497,035 line items, spread over 2906 orders.

In terms of size, one might think that is not much to process if it was comprised solely of pens or candy for example. Well, here are the stats of what these phenomenal ladies have actually handled so far this year:

79,488 Pens

49,819 Shirts

8,622 Hats

6,519 Mugs, Bottles & Tumblers

5,594 Bags

4,201 Toques

3,000 Jerry Cans

1,972 Jackets

Plus SO much more! Hats off to Anndrea, Tiffany, Ashley, Anca and Angela! You ladies make the front of the house run so smoothly, which in turn allows us to focus on our customers.

We also must acknowledge how blessed we are to work with incredible clients. A heartfelt "Thank You" to our valued customers for your patronage in 2019 and for continually referring your friends and acquaintances to us! The entire team here at MOBO wishes you all a safe and happy Holiday Season and prosperous New Year!

HO HO HO!
